Washington, Der. 1.-Miss Adah Roberts has been interviewed in the eastern papers, and she talks very directly and earnestly. She says:

London, Dec. 8.-General Buller's at val at Frere is held to indicate that relief of Ladysmith are comple and that stirring news will soon be received. The fact that Lord Methuer is announced as resuming his command at almost the same moment is interpreted in some quarters to mean that hartles will be fought simultaneously in Natal and at Spytfontein. It appears doubtful, however, whether General Methien's force is yet ready for what will evidently be a heavy encounter. The construction of the temporary bridge across Modder river has entailed enormous labor, and even now the structure is flable to be washed away should a heavy storm come. General Methien has begin obliged to move his camp a mile north in consequence of the unsanitary state of the stream, the to the presence of the bodies of lead Boors. As the raffway bridge was completely destroyed, he was compelled a leave a considerable force to protect is communications.

To Hold Their Fire.

To Hold Their Fire.

A special correspondent sends the interesting information regarding Boor tactics that Commandant General Joulett has given general orders to reserve fire until the British are within the close range of 460 yards. At the Moddor River battle the Free State burghers became nervous, opened fire prematurely, thus revealing their position, and frustrated the Boor plans. The government has decided to despatch to South Africa at the earliest possible moment a cavalry brigade of about 4.000 mse.

Baron Loch, former governor of Cape Colony and British high commissioner for South Africa, lecturing in London inst evering, related some of his experienced with President Kruger. He said the remarks of the Transvall president years ago showed that he cantemplated just the state of affairs which had now arisen. Mr. Kruger even expressed a desire to have a seaport and said the Transvall hoped to have a many some day.

The Times, commenting upon Lord Loch's reminiscences, says that they prove up to the hill the Dutch ambition for Dutch supermoxy in South Africa.

WILL NEVER DESERT WIVES STRIKERS ALL IN BED ASLEEP Mr. Roberts Tells Arthur McEwen of the Persecution He Has Been Subjected To.

(Special to The Herald.)
Washington, Dec. 7.—Arshur McEwen has a signed article in today's Philadelphia American in which he tells of an interview he had with Congressman Roberts. It is said here that the statements made by Mr. Roberts in the interview will be used as a basis by he Taylor investigating committee. Mr. wen's article says:

Hoberts talks even better in private than in public. He is easy, carnest and unaffected. Were he not a Mormon, nobody would question that ho is a gentleman, and were it persible for him to remain in the house, his brains would soon place him among the leaders of his party, which is very much in want of leaders. He does not deceive himself about his chances and is sere to the soul, not because of balked ambition, apparently, but form

On being told that the courage and billty with which he faced the house on Tuesday had won him respect, Rober a smiled a rather sad smile and said:

"I expected plenty of misjudgment and opposition, of course," said Roberts, and he spoke with bitterness. "But I looked for more courage. It does not cost me much effort to face unpopularity, for I always have had to do that, and it is difficult for me to realize the state of mind of men who cower and tremble before a clamor for which they have no genuine respect.

Once out of doors the frosty air relieved them of all drowsiness for it was bitterly, stingingly cold, and with brisk steps they quickly marched to their posts. By 5 o'clock all the men were stationed and were restlessly paring.

There were tears in his eyes when he gaoke of the goodness and loyalty of his wives. It was after the manner of one dwelling on the bride of his youth, the mother of his sums and daughters, the companion of his manhood, the sharer of his struggles and the dependent partner of life's decline.
